Flight to California

R. G. Minutillo

thoughts on sunset
red sky beyond the
thunderheads
orange towns
along
the waves of land

thoughts on thunderheads
the wing reaching out, its tip

glowing,

a marker
in space, antennae
feeling the
waves of electricity

the chased and
timeless sunset
ahead i face
looking down
floating under
power

the travelers are alive, the orange streets
i see below
are lined with
the glow of the living,
their lives,
like mine,

moving

An experimental issue originally set with Ventura Publisher and printed by an HP LaserJet II. using the Adobe Postscript Cartridge's Palatino, Avant Garde and Helvetica Narrow fonts. Later modified to use Adobe Apollo Fonts, and the Acrobat™ file format.
