

POETRY BY THE PAGE

Volume 4

November 1979

Page 4

it was an afternoon without particular
triumph or travail
time
was simmering
the light
shifting under somniaulating
cumulus humilis

a good day to smoke fat cigars
and look up words
and wait for
calls to be returned

*Set & printed all by hand at the Fine-Arts Bluesband & Poetry Press. Drawing by Vincent Baldassano.
© 1979 by R.G.Minutillo.*